

Celebrate Social Work Week 2018!

Social Workers on the Front Line of Real Issues

DEDICATED TO GROWTH

Voices from the Front Line - March 6

An exhibition of poetry, stories and photos featuring members of the London community who are often silent.

Spriet Learning Commons in the King Student Life Centre

9:30 a.m.–4 p.m.

Join us for cake and coffee at noon.

Presentation of the OASW Inspirational Leader Award to Dr. Anne Toth at 12:15pm

Free event

Professional Development Day - March 7

Single Session Walk-in Therapy: Shaping a Just Service Landscape

9 a.m.–noon

Joanne and Peter Kenny Theatre

Registration is required. $10

Keynote speaker: Scot Cooper

Scot is a Registered Psychotherapist, international trainer and consultant in brief narrative therapy and community practice. He will share a provocative narrative legitimizing the place single session therapy has carved within the service landscape.

A panel representing community agencies will follow the keynote presentation.

Ignite Social Work London - March 7

Ten speakers will present issues that matter to our community.

Aoelian Hall, 795 Dundas St

6:30 p.m.–9 p.m.

Free event

To learn more about Social Work Week and to register for the PD Day, visit socialwork.kings.uwo.ca/swwweek