

Postdoctoral Associate School of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Western Ontario, Canada*About Western

Western ranks as one of Canada's top research-intensive universities. From fundamental to applied discovery and other scholarly activities, its scholars advance knowledge that provides tangible benefits for the economic, social, health and cultural development of citizens in London, in Canada and around the world. Western Research supports scholars through collaboration, communication, and service. Western University and its affiliate colleges received more than $267 million in research funding over the past year.

About the Role

A postdoctoral position is available with Drs. Janis Oram Cardy and BJ Cunningham. This position is available immediately, and recruitment will continue until it is filled. The position would be for 2 to 3 years. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Speech-Language Pathology, Knowledge Translation or Implementation Science, Health Services Research, Psychology, or a closely related field. The successful applicant will possess research experience working with community end users (e.g., clinicians, families, policy makers) to identify applied research questions, and develop, trial, and implement novel tools and protocols to improve evidence-based practice. Experience with program evaluation and quality improvement would also be an asset.

The successful candidate will have strong oral and written communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills. The candidate will be involved in multiple research activities related to early speech and language intervention programs in Ontario, including for autistic children. Working with a project team, the candidate will be involved in all aspects of research including project management, liaising with collaborators and community partners, supervising and mentoring research assistants, data collection and analysis, and manuscript preparation. This position is full-time. The salary will be commensurate with experience and competitive. More information about benefits for postdoctoral associates at Western University is available at: https://www.uwo.ca/hr/benefits/your_benefits/pda/index.html. Travel funds are available to present study findings at scientific meetings or conferences.

Interested individuals are strongly encouraged to e-mail a statement of interest in this position to Drs. Oram Cardy and Cunningham. Please also include:

- Your current C.V.
- A statement of academic interests and career goals
- A sample of scholarly writing
- The names of three referees who are familiar with your academic work and can be contacted.

Dr. Janis Oram Cardy, Email: janis.cardy@uwo.ca

Dr. BJ Cunningham, Email: bj.cunningham@uwo.ca

Western Values Diversity

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression. Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process.

Important Note Effective September 7, 2021, all employees and visitors to campus are required to comply with Western's COVID-19 Vaccination Policy